

Company Policies

1. Code of Conduct

All employees must conduct themselves professionally and ethically. This includes treating colleagues with respect, maintaining confidentiality of company information, and avoiding conflicts of interest. Any violations of conduct policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

2. Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy

The company is committed to providing a workplace free from discrimination and harassment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic. All complaints should be reported to Human Resources immediately.

3. Remote Work Policy

Eligible employees may work remotely up to 2 days per week with manager approval. Remote work requires a dedicated workspace and reliable internet connection. All company data must be handled securely, and employees must be available during core business hours (10 AM - 3 PM).

4. Confidentiality and Data Security

Employees must protect company confidential information and customer data. This includes trade secrets, business plans, and customer lists. Unauthorized disclosure may result in legal action. All employees must complete annual data security training.

5. Drug and Alcohol Policy

The company maintains a drug-free workplace. Employees are required to report to work free from the influence of drugs or alcohol. Violating this policy may result in immediate termination. The company reserves the right to conduct drug testing when necessary.

6. Social Media Policy

While employees may use social media in their personal time, they should not disclose company information or misrepresent themselves as company representatives. Comments disparaging the company or colleagues may result in disciplinary action. Always maintain professional standards online.
